erday afternoon discussed the frui fly and its possible ravages here, particularly with reference to the proba bility of pineapples becoming infected. Albert Waterhouse, who was on the pecial committee taking up this ques tion for the board of agriculture and forestry, reported that not much danger to pineapples exists. Mention was made of the visit here of E. K. Carnes and his activities on behalf of the State of California It was stated that the chamber's committee to cooperate with Mr. Carnes is in touch with him.
